Celebrating Fathers and all they do!

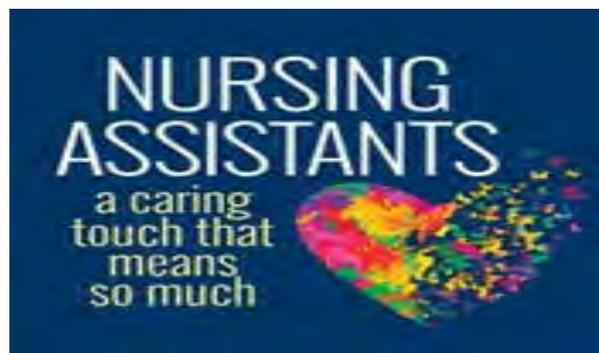

The present day history and significance of Father's day: Father's day was not celebrated in the US and other countries outside of the catholic traditions until the beginning of the 20th century. It began to be celebrated in the USA as a compliment to Mother's day in order to celebrate the male parenting and to honor fathers through fathers day gifts. The first attempt to celebrate Father's day was done on July 5th ,1908 in Fairmont, West Virginia, in the Central United Methodist Church due to the efforts of Grace Golden Clayton in the memory of her father and other fathers who died in the Monongah Mining Disaster in December, 1907. However, her efforts did not transform into a national movement and the celebration was later disbanded in the subsequent years. Another attempt in this regard was done by Jane Addams in the year 1911 when her request for a city wide celebration of Father's day was turned down by the authorities. Finally, the Father's Day celebration was done on June 19th, 1910 at the YMCA in Spokane,

Washington by the initiative of Sonora Smart Dobb. She gave the idea of Celebrating the Father's Day after hearing the sermon about Jarvis Mother's Day in 1909 at the Central Methodist Church. Later on, the Third Sunday of June was decided as the Father's day by the support of various local clergymen on June 19th, 1910. The Bill to formally recognize the Father's day holiday was introduced in the Congress in the year 1913, but the attempt to get the Congress approval was defeated two times earlier. By the year 1966, President Lyndon B. Johnson issued the formal proclamation honoring father's by announcing the Third Sunday in June as the official Father's day. Six years later, the President Richard Nixon made it a national holiday by a law in the year 1972.
